ABOUT THE LEAGUE

The League of Women Voters of Seattle-King County has been actively engaged in making our democracy work since 1921. The League strives through education and advocacy to:

- Act as a force to create positive, lasting change
- Ensure that all citizens have a voice
- Educate citizens on public policy issues that affect their lives
- Foster public debate based on substance rather than partisanship
- Monitor governmental bodies and commissions
- Influence public policies consistent with League positions and principles.

Made up of people of all ages and backgrounds, the League is a nonpartisan, grassroots organization. Its activities include registering voters, sponsoring debates, holding public forums, studying public policy, taking positions based on its fundamental principles and publishing educational resources like this directory.

The League is firmly nonpartisan and neither supports nor opposes candidates for office. At the same time, it is political and advocates on select policy issues after careful consideration by its membership. Each month, discussion groups, known as units, meet across King County to study issues that challenge us on the local, state and national level.

Find out more about the League's ongoing work at www.lwvskc.org.

Membership

League members engage at the local, state and national level in hands-on work to encourage informed and active participation in government. Visit www.lwvskc.org or call 206-329-4848 for more information about joining the League.

SUPPORT OUR WORK!

The League's education activities and voter services are supported by its Education Fund, a 501(c)(3) charitable organization. Please consider making a tax-deductible donation to help further this important work. Donations can be made online at www.seattlelwv.org/edfund.

CONTACTING YOUR REPRESENTATIVES

Sharing your thoughts with the people who represent you at the local, state and national level is easy and vital to the functioning of our democracy. When an issue or legislation arises that you care about, contact your representatives by email, phone or regular mail to ensure that your voice is heard.

Tips for Communicating with Elected Officials

- Email is now the preferred method of communication, but phone calls and letters are still effective.
- Be courteous and to the point.
- Keep letters to one page.
- Letters to elected officials should be addressed to "The Honorable" plus name, or "Position" plus name, as in "The Honorable Jane Doe" or "Councilmember Jane Doe."
- Describe specifically and in your own words how an issue or legislation will affect you or others you know.
- Include the bill number or its popular name if you are commenting on specific legislation.
- Be sure to give your name, address and phone number.
- Ask for a response.
- Give positive feedback. Take the time to let your representatives know when they have done something of which you particularly approve.
- Remember, your elected officials represent you!

Democracy Vouchers: In 2015, voters in Seattle adopted a publicly financed election system that allows residents to contribute up to $100 to eligible candidate(s) in city elections by using vouchers. The vouchers are funded through a property tax. In 2019, vouchers will be available to participating candidates for district council races. The intent of the program is to provide greater diversity of participation both in candidates running for office and the people getting involved in campaigns.

For more information about the program and to obtain vouchers go to: www.seattle.gov/democracyvoucher.

City council elections in Washington State are nonpartisan, and council members serve four-year, staggered terms. Mayors are either elected by voters and serve four-year terms (listed separately) or are selected by the council, serve two-year terms and preside over the council (listed with the other councilmembers).

VOTE411.org is a “one-stop-shop” for election-related information. Launched by the League of Women Voters in 2006, it provides nonpartisan information on the election process nationwide. It includes state-specific information and links for voter registration, election day procedures, polling places and more.

During election season Vote411 also tailors a voter's guide for you. The guide includes just the candidates and issues that you will be voting on and has questions and answers from the candidates specific to the office they are running for and current issues they will need to address if elected.

QUICK FACTS ABOUT WASHINGTON STATE

- Washington now has 10 congressional districts, having gained an additional seat in the U.S. House of Representatives in the reapportionment process following the 2010 Census.
- Washington has 49 legislative districts, and each district elects one state senator to serve a four-year term and two state representatives to serve two-year terms.
- Elections to the State Legislature are held in even-numbered years. Senators serve staggered terms, so half the senate is elected every two years.

The 10th District was created in the reapportionment process following the 2010 Census. The Census showed that the state's population had grown by 14.7% since the 2000 Census to just over 6.7 million residents. This increase of close to one million new residents earned Washington State an additional seat in the House of Representatives.

PRIMARIES IN WASHINGTON STATE

Washington was the first state in the country to establish a Top 2 Primary election system in place of a party nominating system. A Top 2 Primary narrows the number of candidates to two. The two candidates who receive the most votes in the Primary advance to the General Election, regardless of their party preference.

Candidates

Each candidate for partisan office may state a political party that he or she prefers. A candidate's party preference does not imply that the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party, or that the party approves of or associates with that candidate. Voters should check with the parties (see contact information on page 36) to confirm endorsements.

Voters

In each race, you may vote for any candidate listed on the ballot. The two candidates who receive the most votes in the Primary advance to the General Election, regardless of their party preference. Washington voters do not declare party affiliation as part of voter registration. However, for the Presidential Primary and the election of PCO's (precinct committee officers), a declaration of affiliation is required and you must vote for a candidate from your declared party. The declaration is made on the ballot itself.

Political parties

Political parties do not have a guaranteed spot on the General Election ballot except in Presidential Elections. The two candidates who advance to the General Election may state a preference for the same party or different parties, or may choose not to state a preference. Parties are free to conduct their nominating procedures according to their own rules, at their own conventions, caucuses or meetings. This frees parties to develop their own criteria for nominations, endorsements, and other public declarations of support.

VOTER REGISTRATION

Who can register to vote?

To qualify to vote in Washington State, you must be a citizen of the United States, a legal resident of the state, at least 18 years old by Election Day, and not disqualified due to a court order. 16- and 17-year-olds can preregister but the registration will not activate until the first election where they will be 18 on or before election day.

Certain domestic violence/harassment victims can keep their address confidential to protect them from abuse/harassment. Contact the Address Confidentiality Program at 360-753-2972 for qualifications and to register. Do not use the standard voter registration methods before checking eligibility.

Where can I register?

Online voter registration is available on the Secretary of State's website at myvote.wa.gov. Mail-in registration forms can be downloaded from <https://www.sos.wa.gov/elections/print-voter-registration-forms.aspx>. Register in-person at your county elections office.

What are the registration deadlines?

You may update your registration the same way you register up to 8 days before the election in which you wish to vote. If this update is not made by the deadline, you may still vote according to your previous address. Contact the elections department to obtain a ballot as it may not be forwarded by the post office.

If you move to a new state, you must re-register with the elections office in the new state in order to vote. Vote411.org can connect you to the correct agency in the new state. Please help keep our voter rolls current by cancelling your WA registration.
